Welcome To America

Dear Valued Customer,

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for selecting one of ATI's touring experiences. When you booked the tour you are on today, you may not have been aware that ATI was the tour operator. It is likely that you booked this tour through one of our many partners worldwide, an ATI client who entrusts us to take care of you - their valued customers.

When ATI was founded in 1977, there were no escorted or pre-planned tours taking visitors from all over the world to some of the most popular destinations in the USA. For instance, Bryce Canyon, which is now world renowned and treasured for its stunning geological formations, was not on the minds of many travelers 40 years ago. We are very proud to have helped raise the awareness of the incredible diversity of destinations across the USA and Canada by featuring them in our escorted and DriveAmerica touring programs.

In the pages that follow, you will find information on a wide array of exciting destinations across the USA and Canada, some are already quite well known and others are more off the beaten path. We hope that the pages ahead will inspire your next trip to North America. Most of all, we hope that you have an enjoyable and memorable journey ahead!

Thanks for choosing to discover America with ATI,

Noel and Nick

Experience North America With ATI

Founded in 1977, American Tours International, LLC (ATI) is North America's leading travel service provider, welcoming hundreds of thousands of visitors from all over the world to United States and Canada annually. ATI started small but has grown over the years as a result of our creativity and dedication to delivering excellent customer service. ATI's philosophy from the beginning has always focused on "innovation, not duplication." Today this is truer than ever. ATI is an industry leader because we are always reinventing and reinvigorating our touring programs, offering new product concepts as well as booking functionality to the industry.

Our Products

Since ATI first started with escorted tours, this product line has always been at the heart of our organization. Today we offer over 40 different escorted touring itineraries across the United States and Canada. Many of these tours are paired with the destination feature stories in the pages that follow.

ATI also offers more independent touring programs, which are often referred to in the industry as "Fly & Drive" packages. These inspired itineraries are part of ATI's DriveAmerica product line and are distributed to our partners throughout the world. ATI works closely with our destination and supplier partners to develop and curate the best possible experiences and routing. We offer tailored e-documentation via mobile app that provides driving directions, interesting history and facts about the places you are visiting, suggested points of interest, and all documentation you may need for hotels and attractions booked through ATI. Our DriveAmerica tours can also be fully customized by one of the many travel industry professionals who utilize ATI's online platform to plan and book their customers travel. Please ask your booking agent about one of the many independent drive programs featured in the pages that follow if you are interested in such an experience for when you return to North America in the future.

Our Tour Directors

Core to ATI's success and to our escorted tour customer's experience is the professionalism of our Tour Directors, who are the best in the industry. That's because we consistently invest in training current Tour Directors, many of whom have been with the company for over twenty years, as well as in the development of new talent. We are very proud of our Tour Directors as they are the front line of ATI, creating the experience for you and providing you with essential information and thoughtful commentary along an escorted journey. If for any reason you are not satisfied with your Tour Director then we would like to know. Please do so by emailing us at tourdirectors@americantours.com.

Our Team

From the entire ATI team, we thank you for selecting an ATI tour through one of our valued partners. Our customer service team is available 24/7 to assist should anything during your trip go awry. We at ATI are dedicated to ensuring the best possible passenger experience and so if you are not satisfied with your tour for any reason, we encourage you to reach out to us at qualitycontrol@americantours.com. We appreciate your feedback and we wish you a safe, enjoyable, and memorable journey.

FIVE MUST-VISIT ATTRACTIONS IN NIAGARA FALLS USA

These quintessential, only-in-Niagara Falls USA attractions celebrate the best of the area. With so many things to do in Niagara Falls, New York and the surrounding area, it can be hard to get to it all. If you're working on a limited timeline, you'll want to go for our narrowed-down list of activities you absolutely have to do here. Get ready for a heady mix of history, adventure and, of course, the spectacular scenery the area is known for!

1) Niagara Falls State Park

America's oldest, Niagara Falls State Park, brings you closer to the grandeur of the Falls than you ever thought possible with its scenic viewing areas: Prospect Point, Luna Island, and Terrapin Point. Hop aboard the all-electric, zero emission Maid of the Mist Boat Tour and sail along the base of the American, Bridal Veil, and Horseshoe Falls. Feel the rushing torrents of the Falls on the Cave of the Winds, a series of decks and stairs that lead to the Hurricane Deck, and stand a mere six meters away from the roar of the natural wonder.

2) Niagara Power Vista

Learn about the phenomenal energy that the Falls produce through hair-raising multimedia experiences and experiments at the Niagara Power Vista. Peruse the 50 interactive exhibits on hydroelectricity and then sneak outside for a bird's-eye view from the observation deck, perched 100 meters above the Niagara Gorge.

3) Old Fort Niagara

Explore the grounds where Native Americans, French, British and American soldiers struggled for a continent and experience Niagara as it once was over 200 years ago at Old Fort Niagara. Tour original 18th-century buildings and fortifications, enjoy dynamic living history programs, and witness one of the oldest U.S. flags in existence.

4) Lockport Locks & Erie Canal Cruises

Take a cruise through history on the Erie Canal with Lockport Locks & Erie Canal Cruises. Travel past five of the original 1800s locks, including the only double set on the Erie Canal. Witness the widest bridge in the U.S., as well as rock cuts, lift bridges and the Upside Down Bridge.

5) Rainbow Air, Inc. Helicopter Tours

Looking for the ultimate 360-degree view? It doesn't get much better than a helicopter ride over the Falls. Rainbow Air, Inc. Helicopter Tours glide above the rushing waters on an electric journey from the mighty Upper Niagara River to the Falls themselves. On any sunny day, you are guaranteed to catch sight of a famous Niagara rainbow.

THE FALLS ARE JUST THE BEGINNING

NIAGARA FALLS

Where the world comes to PLAY & GET AWAY

Visit New Orleans Northshore

The Northshore is forty minutes from the French Quarter in New Orleans, but a world away. Kayak lazy bayous. Visit Abita, Louisiana's largest craft brewery. Hold an alligator at Insta-Gator Ranch and meet one on a tour of Honey Island Swamp. Revel in our culture at a Northshore fair or festival.

THE COUNTRYSIDE OF PHILADELPHIA

A Garden Paradise

The greater Philadelphia region abounds in horticultural assets, earning the moniker “America’s Garden Capital.” World-renowned Longwood Gardens combines the best of Italian, French, and English traditions to create one of America’s most memorable gardens. Longwood encompasses 1,050 acres, offering 40 indoor/outdoor gardens and a breathtaking conservatory. Longwood is also home to the most significant fountain collection in North America. The crown jewel of that collection, the Main Fountain Garden, now features over 1700 jets soaring as high as 175 feet, with amazing illuminated fountain shows seasonally. Morris Arboretum is on the National Register of Historic Places. Founded in 1933, Morris Arboretum has over 12,000 plants from North America, Europe, the Mediterranean, China, Japan and Korea with a focus on Asian temperate species. Some of them are among the largest of their kind in North America while others are exceedingly rare.

A Shopping Haven

Bargains are just as plentiful as blooms, as fabulous shopping can be found throughout The Countryside of Philadelphia. King of Prussia Mall—the largest retail complex on the U.S. East Coast—features over 450 stores that include Neiman Marcus, Lord & Taylor, Bloomingdales and Macy’s and an impressive collection of luxury retailers (Cartier, Gucci, Louis Vuitton, and Williams-Sonoma, for example). Nearby Philadelphia Premium Outlets additionally offers 150 name brand outlet stores offering 25–65 percent savings everyday from brands including Ann Taylor, Coach, Abercrombie and Fitch, Brooks Brothers and Nike. Boutiques and galleries can be found along the small towns and villages throughout The Countryside of Philadelphia. An added bonus – tax free shopping on clothing and shoes!

A Shared History

The Countryside of Philadelphia played a noteworthy role in the Revolutionary War; the Brandywine Battlefield saw victory go to the British General Howe, in the largest engagement of the Revolution, while Valley Forge National Historical Park was the site of the 1777–1778 winter encampment of the Continental Army; from here emerged a spirited and rededicated fighting force. Living history villages include a revolutionary war hospital and soldier’s orphan school. Sites welcome visitors to experience stories brought to life in lively and informative ways, including historical interpreters, hands-on demonstrations and multimedia presentations.

World-Class Museums

We have museums to appeal to all tastes; from high art to lowbrow comedy. The Brandywine River Museum of Art displays an unparalleled collection of illustrations, still lifes and landscapes by three generations of the famed Wyeth family. The Wharton Esherick Museum celebrates the “Dean of American Craftsman” and his unique and fanciful woodcarvings. The historic home and property of America’s most famed ornithologist, the 18,000-square-foot John James Audubon Center for Art and Conservation opens in June 2019, and features two galleries, a theater, interactive exhibits, and outdoor features. Glencairn Museum, a religious art and history museum, was once the early 20th-century home of Raymond and Mildred Pitcairn and their children.

The Culinary Landscape

Tempting palates and satisfying cravings is a specialty in The Countryside of Philadelphia. Expert chefs transform the freshest local ingredients into the most delicious creations from haute cuisine to simple plates. Kennett Square is affectionately called “The Mushroom Capital of the World,” as over 60% of the nation’s crop hails from the region. The rich terroir also produces many award-winning wines and the brewery scene is not to be missed. Regional and multicultural cuisine will satisfy many tastes and budgets. The Countryside’s ready access to locally sourced ingredients fuels the culinary fire that guests relish.

MISSOURI: ICONIC SITES & LOCAL BITES

Kansas City - Arrival

Day 1: Have a late lunch at Arthur Bryant's Barbeque, the legendary "King of Ribs." The most renowned pit master in history, Bryant created a sauce that has attracted former Presidents Harry Truman and Jimmy Carter to his restaurant. Visit the sights and sounds of a uniquely American art form at the American Jazz Museum. The museum's exhibits feature talented performers who helped the genre thrive. Located in the same complex, the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum (NLBM) can't be missed. It is the world's only museum dedicated to preserving and celebrating the rich history of African American baseball and its impact on the social advancement of America. The 10,000-square-foot multimedia exhibit chronicles the history and heroes of the leagues from their founding in 1920 to their demise in the 1960s. The NLBM was recently added to the U.S. Civil Rights Trail. Some believe the integration of baseball was a catalyst for the Civil Rights Movement, proving that an individual's worth should not be determined by the color of their skin. Have dinner at Fiorella's Jack Stack Barbecue. A Kansas City tradition since 1957, Jack Stack has one of the most extensive BBQ menus in the country. After dinner, enjoy live jazz music at The Blue Room. Named after the famous 1930s Street Hotel club in the historic 18th & Vine Jazz District, the venue provides a distinctive platform to present dynamic performances from the best local and national jazz talent in an intimate setting. In addition to The Blue Room experience, sit in on a "jam session" at The Mutual Musicians Foundation—located in the heart of Kansas City's historic jazz district. Originally home to the Black Musicians' Protective Union Local 627 A.F. of M., the Foundation continues its grand tradition as a living tribute to the city's long and illustrious musical history. Jazz greats and popular local players alike continue to show up every weekend to play the night away just as they have since the 1930s.

Kansas City

Day 2: Enjoy breakfast at one of the local coffee shops or restaurants. A few suggestions are the Blue Bird Bistro, Succotash, Messenger. Next, make your way to Union Station Kansas City to enjoy the ever-changing exhibits, Science City, planetarium, shops, and grab a bite for lunch at either Harvey's Restaurant or Pierpont's. After lunch, learn a little bit about Kansas City's gangster history and how the city got its nickname: "Paris of the Plains." Gangster Tour highlights infamous crimes like the Union Station Massacre, shows the locations of speakeasies and gambling halls and explains how liquor flowed freely during Prohibition. The homes and workplaces of crime bosses and the sites of major turf wars are also featured on the tour. Sounds like an "offer you can't refuse." After the gangster tour, head to J. Rieger & Co. to learn about the distillery's history, sample Kansas City Whiskey and hop on the only known distillery slide in the world! For dinner, you can choose from many award-winning restaurants in the city's eclectic food scene. Some of the favorites are Corvino Supper Club and Tasting Room, The Town Company, or The Savoy at 21c. Close out the evening with more jazz. Soar over Lake Taneycomo on Parakeet Pete’s Waterfront Zipline. Marvel at artifacts recovered from under the sea at the Shipwrecked Treasure Museum. This thick milkshake, made from vanilla frozen custard and blended with traditional and inventive treats, will not spill out of the cup.

7 WAYS TO EXPLORE NEW ORLEANS

Stroll The French Quarter

Also known as the Vieux Carré, the French Quarter neighborhood is the heart of New Orleans, Louisiana. It's filled with history and old-world charm that must be experienced to truly be understood. Picture block after block of European architecture, beautiful hotels, centuries-old restaurants, exciting music venues, antique shops and colorful art galleries. Described by many as a living museum in itself, the French Quarter is home to St. Louis Cathedral, Jackson Square and homes rich in architectural detail with hidden courtyards. It's where the mighty Mississippi River meets the city's sidewalks, and where you can relax and observe ships and charming paddle-wheelers navigate the river.

Indulge In Cuisine And Cocktails

In the Crescent City, food is an art form and chefs are rock stars. With hundreds of restaurants in the Greater New Orleans area, everyone is sure to find something that satisfies their palate. From traditional Creole dishes to globally inspired flavors, the city offers one of the most incredibly diverse concentrations of exceptional dining and unforgettable cuisine in the world. New Orleans restaurateurs and renowned chefs are passionate about their craft, and it shows in their achievements that are rarely, if ever, replicated anywhere else in the world. After treating your taste buds, take your turn with the spatula at one of the many cooking schools around the city.

Explore the New Orleans cocktail scene by enjoying a mixology class or cocktail tour. Here you can walk down the street with a drink as long as it's in a plastic "go-cup"! Learn more about the city's spirited culture at the Sazerac House, a new museum dedicated to the original cocktail of New Orleans, the Sazerac.

Dance To Live Music

A melting pot of musical inspirations and innovations; New Orleans has embraced music as an indelible part of its history, an important facet of its identity, and one of the most colorful threads in its cultural tapestry. From street performers to symphonies and second line parades to world-renowned festivals, music continues to permeate and enrich every day of life in New Orleans. While you're here, follow the locals to the endless clubs and bars along Frenchmen Street and beyond. Snug Harbor, the Spotted Cat and Preservation Hall offer local jazz favorites, while Blue Nile, The Maison and Tipitina's are the spots for funk.

Ride The Streetcar Through The Garden District

For only $1.25 each way, hop on the green St. Charles Avenue Streetcar for a tour of the historic Garden District. Ride under moss-draped oak trees past ornate mansions. You can stop for a romantic stroll through Audubon Park to admire the beautiful nature that inhabits New Orleans or hop off for a drink at Hot Tin Rooftop Bar at The Pontchartrain Hotel or Superior Seafood & Oyster Bar, two local favorites.

Shop For Unique Treasures

While neighboring areas offer a more traditional mall experience, most of New Orleans takes on a less structured environment that reaches up and down streets and between neighborhoods. Downtown or Uptown, the convenience of walking store to store is matched only by the enjoyment of exploring charming neighborhoods and the thrill of discovering one-of-a-kind treasures. A six-mile stretch of boutiques, restaurants and entertainment, Magazine Street is a great way to spend an afternoon in New Orleans. International travelers can benefit from tax-free shopping offered at participating retailers throughout the city, including shops within Canal Place and the Outlet Collection at the Riverwalk.

Experience A Festival

If you visit New Orleans during a weekend in the spring or fall, odds are good that your visit will correspond with a festival. Festivals in New Orleans celebrate everything from music, food, art and culture. In April and May, the two largest festivals, French Quarter Fest and New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival, bring hundreds of thousands of tourists and locals to the festival grounds. Musical acts from around the world and across town play at these festivals. Locals can be seen dancing to the live music, enjoying food from regional restaurants or lounging on a blanket with friends.

Learn Something New At A Museum

Browse your choice of dozens and dozens of New Orleans museums focused on a range of interests including history, art, nature and architecture. Learn about Mardi Gras at The Presbytere, where you can see costumes and jewels from krewe royalty, or at Mardi Gras World, where you can see authentic parade floats come to life. Visitors can easily spend a day at the award-winning National World War II Museum, and experience their newest immersive attraction, Expressions of America. Dive into New Orleans' rich history at The Historic New Orleans Collection or immerse yourself in a cultural funhouse at JAMNOLA. Whatever way you choose, there is always something new & exciting to discover in New Orleans.

As the capital city of Louisiana, Baton Rouge is the very heart and soul of the state's eclectic culture. Here, you will find a little bit of something for everyone - from the treasure-filled antique shops nestled in Baton Rouge's Mid City neighborhood to outdoor experiences in the heart of the city at Bluebonnet Swamp Nature Center. With world-class restaurants, a vibrant arts and culture scene and just a little bit of that Southern charm, Baton Rouge will bring you an authentic Louisiana experience that will leave you coming back for more.

Get Settled In

Whether you're here for the weekend or extending your stay, Baton Rouge offers everything from national brands to local, family-run bed and breakfasts. To stay in the heart of it all, the Hilton Baton Rouge Capitol Center is located in downtown Baton Rouge, overlooking the Mississippi River, with a wide selection of museums and restaurants within mere steps. For a home away from home, consider The Stockade Bed & Breakfast. Wake from your spacious room to the smell of coffee and a full, Southern-style breakfast, which can be enjoyed inside the large dining room or outside on one of the two patios.

Antiques & Entertainment In Mid City

Few places are as eccentric as Baton Rouge's Mid City neighborhood, filled with murals, unique shopping experiences and laidback entertainment. Browse over 5,000 square feet of antiques at Circa 1857, where booths and stalls are filled unique finds and art from over 30 dealers and artists. Spend the afternoon at The Electric Depot, a former power plant turned social space, where you can shop for local goods, fill up on ramen and taiyaki ice cream and grab a cup of coffee. Just a few steps from shopping and dining is its largest attraction Red Stick Social. A quick stroll through downtown will show museums tucked into every corner. You can explore the decks of a Fletcher-class destroyer at the USS KIDD Veterans Museum and a 5,000-work art collection showcasing everything from photography to pottery at the LSU Museum of Art. If you are loving Louisiana, head to the Capitol Park Museum, where artifacts such as a full-size shrimp boat and Louis Armstrong's bugle will tell the history, culture and industry of the most vibrant state in America. Just across the street stands the current Louisiana State Capitol, at a majestic 450 feet tall. Head to the 27th floor Observation Deck for a panoramic view of the city and the Mississippi River.

Taste Baton Rouge

Baton Rouge is best experienced through taste, with a wide variety of delicious restaurants. Menus throughout the city serve up everything from classic Louisiana fare to globally inspired dishes.

Coffee Call is a Baton Rouge staple has been serving up freshly ground café au lait and world-famous beignet fingers for over 30 years. Whether you choose to start your morning with this delicacy or come by for a snack, you're sure to be satisfied. Newer to the Baton Rouge breakfast scene is Leola's Café & Coffee House. This Mid City restaurant serves brunch every day of the week and is known for putting a spin on the midday meal by offering a selection of boards and flights filled with breakfast favorites.

Baton Rouge food extends far beyond breakfast and draws its inspiration from the cultures that have shaped the city into what it is today. Combining Southern flair with global fusion is a common theme throughout the city, found at places such as Chow Yum Phat and Mestizo's Louisiana Mexican Cuisine. Farm-to-table also reigns in Baton Rouge, and options such as Cocha and BLDG 5 are known for their fresh, seasonally inspired menus and pleasant outdoor seating areas perfect for enjoying a beautiful day in the Capital City.

Louisiana and libations go hand in hand, and you're sure to find some of the best right here in Baton Rouge. Get a taste for yourself by doing a tasting while taking a tour to see how these beverages are crafted. At Tin Roof Brewing Co., you'll find a selection of beer brewed onsite, as well as a selection of food trucks parked by the lawn. If you're looking for spirits, head to Oxbow Rum Distillery. Every drop of the sugarcane rum is farmed, milled and distilled in Louisiana, and you can see the process in action by taking a tour. You might even get to have a taste straight from the barrel!

Outdoor Adventures

Get in touch with nature without ever leaving the city! Bluebonnet Swamp Nature Center's gravel paths and boardwalks provide a quick connection with nature, linking habitats such as the cypress-tupelo swamp, beech magnolia and hardwood forests, all while showing off the local flora and fauna. Closer to downtown, you can stroll or bike the Riverfront Plaza, providing an unbeatable view of the Mississippi River and the Baton Rouge skyline.

Groove To The Music

As home to the swamp blues, music plays an integral role in the Baton Rouge experience. Head outside the city limits to Teddy's Juke Joint, where you can hear live blues music inside Teddy Johnson's childhood home. For something closer to the city, head to Beauvoir Park. As Baton Rouge's "best kept secret," this lowkey venue showcases local and regional acts, with food trucks offering food for purchase. Don't forget to grab a blanket to sit on and bring your favorite drinks to sip on!

COWBOYS, INDIANS AND ALL THAT JAZZ

The USA's Southern western states include Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana, three states that are famously known for Cowboys, Indians and Jazz.

Cowboys

Texas is synonymous with cowboys! Whether it's about the traditional working cowboy or the National Football League's (NFL) Dallas Cowboys, or Major League's Baseball (MLB) Texas Rangers - the cowboy has become an iconic symbol of Texas.

Centrally located is Grapevine, Texas, a historic town settled before Texas became a state, and home to Dallas Fort Worth International Airport (aka DFW). The Grapevine experience offers life of the traditional cowboy with cattle drives, rodeos, honky-tonks, country music, and fictional shoot-outs. See the world's most illustrious ranch, "Southfork Ranch", made famous by the Ewing family in the television series, Dallas, and visit the Dallas Cowboys AT&T Stadium and the Texas Rangers Globe Life Field.

Indians

Oklahoma. One state, many nations. The name Oklahoma means red people in Choctaw. Today, 39 American Indian nations have tribal headquarters in Oklahoma - more than any other state. While two tribes already lived in the area at the time of European contact, all others were forced to leave ancestral homelands and migrated to what was then Indian Territory, each having their own district, culture and society. On this trip, visit tribes who reside in Oklahoma: from tribal perspective, learn of their early history, how they got to Oklahoma and about some of their most influential members. See what the Oklahoma-based tribes are today - sovereign nations with thriving businesses and cultures and citizens who are working hard to preserve their language and heritage. You'll visit the Chickasaw Cultural Center; the First Americans Museum; Standing Bear Park, Museum and Education Center; the Cherokee National History Museum; the Choctaw Cultural Center; and the Osage Nation Museum.

Some of the world's largest collections of Art portraying American Cowboys and American Indians are found at Oklahoma City's National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum, Tulsa's Gilcrease Museum, and at Bartlesville's Woolaroc Ranch.

All That Jazz

Jazz was born in Louisiana! New Orleans to be exact, and precisely at Congo Square! This public square was one of the only places in America where slaves were allowed to gather and play drums.

They did so on “free Sundays,” where the sharing of African rhythms and dance kept their ancestral tradition alive until, as it happened, it would become the very rhythm of American popular culture.

Jazz is the music that erupted when African (and Afro-Caribbean) and European traditions converged in America and nowhere was that mix more potent than in New Orleans. Naturally, many of the earliest names in jazz hailed from Louisiana, including Buddy Bolden, Jelly Roll Morton and King Oliver. One of jazz’s most original performers, New Orleans’ own Louis “Satchmo” Armstrong, was as much an ambassador for the music as he was for his hometown. The newest generation of jazz musicians continue to honor the tradition while bringing in their own unique sounds.

Fabulous Food

Breakfast, lunch and dinner... all GREAT reasons to travel Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana. Food in this USA region is uniquely fabulous and incredibly delicious, where home-style cooking is the heart of the exceptional restaurants featured throughout the Cowboys, Indians and All That Jazz route. Places like Meat U

Anywhere BBQ in Grapevine, Cattlemen’s Steakhouse in Oklahoma City, The Chicken Shack in Luther, the Sentry Drug & Grill and Little Cakes with Big Attitude in Alexandria, or Strawn’s Eat Shop in Shreveport Bossier and Mother’s Restaurant in New Orleans. All serve-up yummy favorites while providing nourishment for the soul.

Any visit in Texas, Oklahoma, and Louisiana is not complete without including a few delicious BBQ joints here and there. Some serve it wet, some serve it dry, some service it sweet, and some service it hot - all are out of this world good!

West Hollywood - Arrival

Day 1: Welcome to West Hollywood, or "WeHo", as it is affectionately called—a vibrant neighborhood located beside Hollywood at the eastern border of Beverly Hills in the heart of Los Angeles. With its hip and trendy vibe, strong sense of community, and colorful show-business history, these two-square miles of shops, restaurants, clubs and landmarks are a virtual feast for the senses. Upon arrival proceed to your hotel located in the heart of the Sunset Strip, one of the most iconic areas of the city renowned for its legendary rock 'n' roll history, eye-popping billboards and exciting assortment of hip restaurants and boutiques that dot the central thoroughfare. Take a stroll along the Strip, grab a bite, and treat yourself to an amazing day: Sunset Plaza, located at 8700 Sunset Boulevard, offers a wide assortment of designer boutiques, cafes, beauty care destinations, and much more. This evening enjoy dinner at one of the many dining options offered on the Strip before returning to your hotel.

West Hollywood

Day 2: Start the day bright and early at Earthbar on Santa Monica Boulevard (recommended). This is the flagship location of the small chain that Southern Californians have come to rely upon for excellent cold-pressed juices, smoothies, and fresh grab-and-go meals. Afterward, join a 10-mile Celebrity Bike Tour that highlights more than 30 jaw-dropping estates and landmarks in West Hollywood and Beverly Hills. These exclusive properties are currently or formerly owned by some of the most famous stars in American culture. This tour also includes stops at boutiques and shops featured in The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills, a tour of trendy Robertson Boulevard, and much more (included). All guests taking the Celebrity Bike Tour will have the option to upgrade to an electric, pedal assist bike for the tour. We recommend the electric bike upgrade for a smoother ride. After working up a WeHo-size appetite, head back down Melrose for a healthy lunch on the patio at Zinqué (recommended) before visiting a true West Hollywood icon: the massive Pacific Design Center, spread over three strikingly shaped and boldly hued buildings along San Vicente Boulevard. Next, just a few blocks away, stroll along the West Hollywood Design District where more than 200 boutiques, flagship stores, art galleries and interior design showrooms are packed neatly along Robertson Boulevard, Melrose Avenue and Beverly Boulevard. Stop back at your hotel and rest up before dining and capping off the night at one of West Hollywood's sceniest restaurant/lounge/bars, Laurel Hardware, housed inside what was once—you guessed it—a hardware store, with an industrial aesthetic harkening back to its previous incarnation (recommended).

West Hollywood

Day 3: Start the day stylishly at Alfred Coffee, a quirky-cool space where the motto is "But first, coffee" (recommended). Then join the 4-mile ultimate hike tour to the Hollywood Sign (included), where you will be treated to 360 views of Los Angeles from the San Fernando Valley to Catalina Island with ample opportunities for killer Instagram photos. You will snag a bird's eye view of the top film studios in Hollywood—Universal Studios and Warner Brothers—and catch a glimpse of the Forest Lawn Mausoleum, the final resting place for many of the top Hollywood celebrities. Your docent will regale you with Tinseltown trivia and

“ The blend of Santa Monica’s oceanfront setting, world-class dining, extraordinary hotel selection and famed shopping options, all set on one of California’s most iconic stretches of shoreline, creates a truly unforgettable destination.”

Hollywood history, while ensuring a safe and exciting climb. Once you hike up behind the Hollywood Sign, you will arrive at a scenic overlook with the best view of the Hollywood Sign in all of Los Angeles. In the afternoon, enjoy WeHo diversity with some serious people watching along the famed Santa Monica Boulevard, the heart of LA’s LGBTQ community. Lunch on the patio at Kitchen24, a neighborhood favorite where breakfast is served 24/7, and enjoy a leisurely afternoon at V Wine Room where California wines are celebrated in a strikingly designed setting in a historic building that previously served as both Charlie Chaplin’s actors’ studio and a small public library (both recommended). Next, use the rainbow crosswalk at Santa Monica and San Vicente Boulevard to head down to the West Hollywood Library, a hidden gem well worth visiting for its great collection of hard-to-find LGBTQ books, fantastic glass-panel views and stunning exterior murals. Head back up to the boulevard for dinner and drinks at The Abbey, a true West Hollywood icon born as a small coffee shop in 1991 which is now a sprawling, lively 16,000 square-foot mega-bar (recommended).

West Hollywood - Santa Monica

Day 4: Today, you will embark on a rather short road trip, heading west toward the ocean along a famous stretch of Santa Monica Boulevard that is actually part of historic Route 66. The East-West corridor, also known as California State Route 2, ends at Ocean Avenue in Santa Monica, Los Angeles’ beach city—a charming seaside escape with all of the culture, events and urban amenities of a bustling metropolis. Alternatively, you could choose an iconic SoCal drive along another world renowned road, Sunset Boulevard, which will take you on a swerving journey through the tawniest LA neighborhoods of Beverly Hills, Bel Air, and Brentwood, before you make your way to San Vicente Boulevard and arrive in Santa Monica. The blend of Santa Monica’s oceanfront setting, world-class dining, extraordinary hotel selection and famed shopping options, all set on one of California’s most iconic stretches of shoreline, creates a truly unforgettable destination. Visit Santa Monica Pier and Pacific Park: end of Route 66 and L.A.’s only admission-free amusement park and dine at one of its famous dining establishments before checking in at your hotel. At your leisure, stroll along Santa Monica’s Third Street Promenade, a half-mile of pedestrian-only street with top name brand stores and a variety of al fresco restaurants and fantastic street performers. Be sure to check out Santa Monica Place, an open-air luxury shopping center anchored by Nordstrom and numerous designer brands and a great rooftop dining deck with many dinner options.

Santa Monica

Day 5: Start your morning the way locals do—with a refreshing dip in the Pacific Ocean. A beautiful coastline and temperate weather also make Santa Monica an ideal destination for a two-wheeled adventure. Rent a bike from Santa Monica Bike Center and cruise along The Strand, a 22-mile long, paved trail that starts in Santa Monica and connects the city with neighboring Venice Beach (included). As you pedal along, soak up Southern California’s beach culture—famous for its surfers, body builders, street performers and spectacular ocean views. Just south of the Pier on Ocean Front Walk in Santa Monica, the Original Muscle Beach outdoor gym area is considered to be the first of its kind in California, featuring ropes, parallel bars, swings and more where you can enjoy free entry and laid-back fun. Santa Monica is also home to the Dogtown Movement of extreme skateboarders (immortalized in the documentary “Dogtown and Z-Boys”). While the influential Z-Boys were initially surfers, the group began skateboarding to practice their board moves. They quickly became full-time skaters and were constantly spotted on their boards throughout the city. It is because of them that skateboarding went from a local hobby to a nationwide pastime. Once darkness has taken hold it’s time to grab dinner. Head to 1212 Santa Monica to enjoy unique California cuisine on Third St Promenade. The restaurant offers a gorgeous vintage-sleek open dining space, indoor and outdoor seating and happy hour (recommended).

Santa Monica

Day 6: Begin your day exploring one of Santa Monica’s quirkiest neighborhoods, Pico Boulevard, home to a collection of below-the-radar shopping finds and unique art galleries. While here, be sure to follow Santa Monica’s Street Art Mural Guide as this eclectic street contains a multitude of popular murals. Afterwards, enjoy lemon ricotta pancakes in the outdoor patio at Lunetta All Day, an all-day eatery from local chef and former professional surfer Raphael Lunetta (recommended). Santa Monica’s central location in Los Angeles County makes it an ideal base to explore the wider region: on your final afternoon, head 15 minutes up Pacific Coast Highway for a visit to the Getty Villa (recommended). Situated on a cliff overseeing the Pacific Ocean, the Getty Villa is an educational center and museum dedicated to the study of the arts and cultures of ancient Greece, Rome and Etruria. Afterwards, head to one of Santa Monica’s four weekly Farmers Markets. The Wednesday Downtown Santa Monica Farmers Market is the largest organic market on the West Coast, where top chefs from across Los Angeles shop for the freshest ingredients, while the Saturday market is slightly smaller but still offers many organic selections. Afterwards, we recommend spending your final afternoon and evening with an elegantly curated picnic experience on the beach by Santa Monica Picnic Co., which includes professionally designed furnishings, chef-curated cheese & charcuterie boards and refreshments. There are also options to add private workout or surf classes and live music sessions—so SoCal chic!

Santa Monica - Departure

Day 7: Your ultimate SoCal experience ends today. Time to get back on the road to head home or return your rental car at the airport prior to your return flight.

WINERIES, OCEAN AND MOUNTAIN ADVENTURES AWAIT AT KSL RESORTS PROPERTIES

From one edge of the United States to the other, KSL Resorts, a hotel management and investment company that considers itself as “stewards of great resorts,” has strategically selected hotels and resorts that appeal to all types of travelers from those who want a multitude of family activities and outdoor adventures to those who enjoy the relaxation of a coastal getaway to resorts that offer historic charm, world-class golf and wine experiences. Its properties are in some of the country’s most iconic destinations including the Pocono Mountains, the California Coast and the world-renowned Napa Valley. Each region has its own special allure, and many visitors return over and over again because one time is rarely enough for these special locations. Each is easily accessible by air, and motorists enjoy the incredibly scenic driving routes that lead right to the front doors of each of these hotels.

The Pocono Mountains

Located in the Eastern United States and popularly and lovingly referred to as The Poconos, this four seasons Pennsylvania mountain region is known for its rolling hills, lush flora, picturesque lakes and cascading waterfalls. In the summer it’s home to fishing, swimming and boating. In the fall the trees transform from various shades of green to golds, reds and yellows beckoning leaf peepers from around the world. Once winter hits, skiers and snowboarders impatiently wait for the slopes to receive their first snowfall, and in the spring, the buds appear back on the trees, flowers bloom and the whole cycle starts once again.

Nestled in the scenic Pocono Mountains, year-round Camelback Resort is home to Camelback Lodge, an eight-story modern-designed mountain hotel with 453 guest suites - some perfect for multigenerational visitors - and family fun that includes award-winning Aquatopia Indoor Waterpark, Arcadia Adventures, multiple dining venues and a state-of-the-art fitness center. The resort features Camelback Mountain - with activities galore throughout the year. During the winter, snow sports enthusiasts enjoy skiing, snowboarding and snowtubing, and in the summer, visitors can blast down the mountain on the Mountain Coaster or zipline through a canopy of trees. Other outdoor adventures include rock climbing, ropes courses, UTVing, hiking and so much more. And to cool off during the summer, visitors can splash and play all day at Camelbeach Outdoor Waterpark (Pennsylvania’s biggest) where kids (and adults!) can slide on slides, ride on rides, rest in cabanas and swim and enjoy the sun.

California’s Central Coast

In the Golden State, the Pacific Ocean is the backdrop for 840 spectacular California waterfront miles, much of which can be driven leisurely stopping along the way at scenic overlooks, hidden waterfalls, hiking trails and Hollywood movie filming locations. And Central Coast hotels love to take advantage of this majestic backdrop by presenting their guests with sweeping ocean vistas, firepits, sandy beaches, seaside dining, water sports, stargazing, sunsets and outdoor fun and games.

At Vespera Resort on Pismo Beach, an Autograph Collection Hotel, guests (and their spoiled pups!) can relax in waterfront luxurious accommodations, dine on authentic Baja-California cuisine at Pequín Coastal Cocina and stroll along Pismo Beach's famous beach boardwalk and pier. The resort is just steps from the beach, so a complete lineup of beach gear is available for rent, with Vespera Resort staff on hand to help with set up. For workout buffs, the resort's fitness center is fully equipped with modern machines and free weights. Guests can unwind after a full day with live entertainment on the Stargazing Lawn.

Other places to stay and play on the coast include Pismo Lighthouse Suites, Shore Cliff Hotel and Avila Lighthouse Suites - all of which offer their own seaside charm, beautiful views and activities. At family-friendly Pismo Lighthouse Suites guests can stay in one of its 70 ocean view suites, ride bikes, swim and play on the dynamic play deck with putting greens, badminton, ping-pong, life size chess and checkers and more. Shore Cliff Hotel is perched atop rugged coastal cliffs overlooking Pismo Beach and the Pacific Ocean and features 100 guestrooms with a patio or balcony, the area's largest heated oceanfront pool and hot tub, fire pits and a full bocce ball court. A little further north and just steps from the sand, Avila Lighthouse Suites is the only all-suite oceanfront hotel in Avila Beach. This hotel features a beautiful oceanfront sun deck, a heated pool and hot tub, mini-golf, life-size chess and ping pong.

Traveling inland a few miles, visitors will appreciate the area's more than 200 wineries and the small-town charm of Paso Robles, a town rich in history. In Paso Robles historic hotels such as Paso Robles Inn and The Piccolo welcome visitors to the slower pace of a bygone era where quaint shops, main street vibes, wineries, a rooftop bar and wine-inspired dining are the norm. The Paso Robles Inn is a historic landmark hotel established in 1889 located in the heart of Paso Robles and has the distinction of being the first hotel in Paso Robles. The Inn's rooms, many with private spa tubs on their balconies, overlook a courtyard of lush gardens, mature oaks, walking paths and koi-filled ponds. Also in downtown Paso Robles, The Piccolo is a luxurious boutique hotel retreat offering the only rooftop bar in downtown Paso Robles, a Moët champagne vending machine, 24 guest rooms with wineries, restaurants, distilleries, shopping and more just steps from the hotel.

Napa Valley

With more than 400 wineries dotting this striking California valley, it's no wonder why millions of wine connoisseurs flock to this region every year. And the wine is only the beginning of its international appeal. Situated north of the exciting city of San Francisco, Napa Valley is driving distance to some of the world's oldest trees, the state's capitol building, beautiful farmland, coastal beaches, waterfalls, kayaking, historic parks, whale watching, world-class dining, PGA golf courses and outstanding tennis facilities.

“One of the jewels in KSL’s resort crown is Silverado Resort situated in the heart of Napa. A California landmark for more than 150 years, Silverado’s genesis was as a private estate built in 1870.”

WONDERS OF ATLANTIC CANADA - NEW BRUNSWICK

Saint John - Arrival

Day 1: Canada's oldest incorporated city (1785) and the only city on the Bay of Fundy, Saint John has a Loyalist heritage that goes back centuries. Today, Saint John is a popular port-of-call on many of the Canada-New England cruise itineraries. With the Bay of Fundy at its doorsteps, Saint John is a vibrant port city full of urban adventure on the edge of nature. The Reversing Falls is where water runs backwards twice a day, and no one blinks an eye. Where the most powerful tug-of-war on earth takes place in the heart of the city thanks to a geological hip-check of South America and Africa, now recognized as the Stonehammer UNESCO Global GEOPark.

Saint John - St. Andrews

Day 2: Visit Saint John City Market, in operation since 1876 and built by shipbuilders. Its unique design - an upside-down ship's hull, has no center pillars or posts to hold up the roof. Nowhere else in Saint John can you experience a traditional "farmers market" while shopping for such a wide selection of goods and services, ranging from dulce to hand-made local crafts, and enjoy a delicious meal from one of the numerous restaurants, featuring local and international foods. Visit New Brunswick Museum and enjoy a Historical Walking tour of Uptown Saint John. Visit the Town of St. Andrews-National Historic District. St. Andrews by-the-Sea is a premier heritage seaside resort and is one of a select few National Historic Districts in Canada. Founded in 1783 by United Empire Loyalists from the U.S. state of Maine, Saint Andrews is home to more than 140 heritage buildings, including five National Historic Sites: St. Andrews Blockhouse (1812), Minister's Island (1786), Greenock Church (1824), Charlotte County Courthouse (1840), Charlotte County Gaol (1832), and just a few kilometres up the St. Croix River you'll find the international historic site of Saint Croix Island, which history dates back to 1604. Saint Andrews is exceptional among Canadian towns in having an unusually large number of heritage buildings, some dating back as far as 230 years. Old-world charm in the 21st century awaits family, friends and visitors year-round in St. Andrews-by-the-Sea.

St. Andrews

Day 3: Experience a whale watching tour with Quoddy Link Marine. Awe-inspiring wildlife experiences in New Brunswick introduce visitors to whales, shorebirds, inland birds and other amazing species of wild animals.

St. Andrews - Fredericton

Day 4: The city of Fredericton, New Brunswick's Riverside Capital. Relax with locals over a craft beer on a lively patio; dive into the rich history on display throughout the city; catch a show at the theatre; explore gorgeous parks by land or water. In Fredericton, the urban comes with a delightful side of nature. Built along both sides of the meandering Saint John River, Fredericton has a special connection to the water. 'The Green' is a long park hugging the banks of the river, and locals value it for the breath of fresh air it provides in the heart of the city. Kayaking, rowing, canoeing, and stand-up paddleboarding are common pastimes. Plus, beaches, golf courses, gardens and trails combine to make Fredericton a very active, outdoor city. History lives loud here. Museums, heritage sites, large old Victorian homes, the historic Garrison

District, and the legislative assembly create a connection to bygone days that flavours any explorer's experience. Enjoy it as you discover new restaurants, city markets, and of course, a few of the city's microbreweries - the highest concentration of craft breweries and tasting experiences in the Maritimes. Culture is vibrant here, with galleries, festivals and artists' studios elevating your experience even more. Our province's capital city might just become your main event.

Fredericton - Acadian Coast - Moncton

Day 5: City of Moncton, Canada's only officially bilingual (English & French) city and voted "most polite city in Canada" is located at the geographic centre of the Canadian Maritimes. Location is everything in Moncton, with easy access to two contrasting New Brunswick coastlines - the Fundy Coastal Drive and the Acadian Coastal Drive. Stroll down Main Street, witness the tidal bore roll in from the Bay of Fundy, or discover the cool urban art that's springing up everywhere. There's a lot going on here!

Moncton - Bay Of Fundy Coast - Moncton

Day 6: New Brunswick's most famous geological feature is the Hopewell Rocks, home to the world's highest tides that rise and fall up to an incredible 48 ft. (14 m)! Older than the Appalachian Mountains and once larger than the Canadian Rocky Mountains, the red cliffs of Hopewell Rocks have been chiseled, over millions of years, by the pounding force of the Fundy tides. It's a place to pause; a place to appreciate a remarkable story interwoven through time, tide, and the intricacies of nature. These are the highest tides in the world after all, and it happens twice a day, every day of the year! At low tide, the sea retreats so far visitors can walk for miles to explore a maze of sky-high rocks that look like sculpted flowerpots. FYI: Each summer, for a 4-6-week period beginning in mid-July, 1 to 2.5 million shorebirds congregate in waves at several key locations in the upper reaches of the bay. The Bay of Fundy is their only stopover on a 2,485 mi (4,000 km) migration south and one of the best locations to see these shorebirds just happens to be at Hopewell Rocks.

Moncton - Departure

Day 7: Do you trust your own perception? Magnetic Hill, where cars simply don't roll uphill. It's impossible, right? Well, drive to the bottom of this world-famous hill, shift into neutral, and be prepared to be amazed. Your car will roll uphill in total defiance of natural law, even as your brain is telling you it's simply not possible. Is it a magnetic pull, an illusion, or a gravitational mystery? Stories about Magnetic Hill have been around since the early 1800s, and this wondrous place has been puzzling visitors for decades.

WONDERS OF ATLANTIC CANADA - NEWFOUNDLAND & LABRADOR

St. John's - Arrival

Don't forget to stop at the Johnson Geo Centre and Signal Hill National Historic Site to take in the colorful views and iconic photo opportunity of St. John's.

St. John's

Travel to Ferryland (1 hour south of St. John's) and take short 40-minute hike to Ferryland Lighthouse and enjoy a gourmet picnic from Lighthouse Picnics. Watch for humpback whales from the coastline as you enjoy your picnic. Be sure to also visit the Colony of Avalon, Ferryland established in 1621 by Sir George Calvert (the First Lord Baltimore). Depart Ferryland for Bay Bulls and take a local boat tour to the Witless Bay Ecological Reserve to see whales, Atlantic puffins, and other seabirds. Marvel at marine wildlife up-close on this cruise through the Witless Bay Ecological Reserve. The reserve is home to over 2.5 million seabirds and one of the largest populations of whales in the North Atlantic. Aboard a spacious catamaran with ample viewing areas, admire icebergs and watch for puffins, whales, razorbills, black legged kittiwakes, and more (wildlife attractions vary with the time of year). Hear live commentary from crew and naturalists on board about Newfoundland's heritage as you travel to Iceberg Alley.

St. John's - Clarenville

Day 4: If you enjoy nature viewing you will want to visit Cape St. Mary's Ecological Reserve to view the northern gannets that nest on a 200 ft sea stack, located on the south-west coast of the Avalon Peninsula near St. Bride's. Stand a mere 20 metres from Bird Rock at the Cape St. Mary's Ecological Reserve, one of the most accessible seabird nesting sites in the world. If you like history, Castle Hill National Historic Site is well worth the scenic drive. This site consists of the remains of French and British fortifications and outworks from the late 17th to the early 19th centuries that sits on the top of a peninsula, high above Placentia, Newfoundland offering fantastic views. Depart Placentia for Clarenville.

Clarenville - Gander

Day 5: Depart Clarenville for Gander. North of Gander Twillingate offers stunningly rugged coastline, historical, picturesque streets, and lush countryside roads.
