We are a proud partner of ATI.

Welcome To America

Dear Valued Customer,

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for selecting one of ATI's touring experiences. When you booked the tour you are on today, you may not have been aware that ATI was the tour operator. It is likely that you booked this tour through one of our many partners worldwide, an ATI client who entrusts us to take care of you – their valued customers.

When ATI was founded in 1977, there were no escorted or pre-planned tours taking visitors from all over the world to some of the most popular destinations in the USA. For instance, Bryce Canyon, which is now world renowned and treasured for its stunning geological formations, was not on the minds of many travelers 40 years ago. We are very proud to have helped raise the awareness of the incredible diversity of destinations across the USA and Canada by featuring them in our escorted and DriveAmerica touring programs.

In the pages that follow, you will find information on a wide array of exciting destinations across the USA and Canada, some are already quite well known and others are more off the beaten path. We hope that the pages ahead will inspire your next trip to North America. Most of all, we hope that you have an enjoyable and memorable journey ahead!

Thanks for choosing to discover America with ATI,

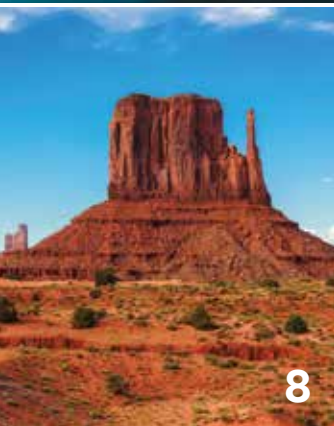

Noel and Nick

Experience North America With ATI

Founded in 1977, American Tours International, LLC (ATI) is North America's leading travel service provider, welcoming hundreds of thousands of visitors from all over the world to United States and Canada annually. ATI started small but has grown over the years as a result of our creativity and dedication to delivering excellent customer service. ATI's philosophy from the beginning has always focused on "innovation, not duplication." Today this is truer than ever. ATI is an industry leader because we are always reinventing and reinvigorating our touring programs, offering new product concepts as well as booking functionality to the industry.

Our Products

Since ATI first started with escorted tours, this product line has always been at the heart of our organization. Today we offer over 40 different escorted touring itineraries across the United States and Canada. Many of these tours are paired with the destination feature stories in the pages that follow.

ATI also offers more independent touring programs, which are often referred to in the industry as "Fly & Drive" packages. These inspired itineraries are part of ATI's DriveAmerica product line and are distributed to our partners throughout the world. ATI works closely with our destination and supplier partners to develop and curate the best possible experiences and routing. We offer tailor-made e-documentation via mobile app that provides driving directions, interesting history and facts about the places you are visiting, suggested points of interest, and all documentation you may need for hotels and attractions booked through ATI. Our DriveAmerica tours can also be fully customized by one of the many travel industry professionals who utilize ATI's online platform to plan and book their customers travel. Please ask your booking agent about one of the many independent drive programs featured in the pages that follow if you are interested in such an experience for when you return to North America in the future.

Our Tour Directors

Core to ATI's success and to our escorted tour customer's experience is the professionalism of our Tour Directors, who are the best in the industry. That's because we consistently invest in training current Tour Directors, many of whom have been with the company for over twenty years, as well as in the development of new talent. We are very proud of our Tour Directors as they are the front line of ATI, creating the experience for you and providing you with essential information and thoughtful commentary along an escorted journey. If for any reason you are not satisfied with your Tour Director then we would like to know. Please do so by emailing us at tourdirectors@americantours.com.

Chicago

Day 2: Enjoy the included morning city tour of Chicago and see some of the most spectacular modern architecture designed by many famous architects like Mies van der Rohe, Frank Lloyd Wright, and Daniel Burnham. Experience the opulent Magnificent Mile filled with name-brand retail stores, Navy Pier, once used by the US Navy, now a point for restaurants and entertainment, Grant and Lincoln parks, home to several outdoor concerts and city gatherings, and not to forget the Cloud Gate sculpture. The afternoon is at leisure to explore many other points of interest, or book a visit through your Tour Director for the Willis Tower, an architectural river cruise, or a dinner cruise (Subject to availability)

Chicago - St. Louis

Day 3: Say farewell to Chicago, and the journey of Historic Route 66 commences. The legendary old road passes through a variety of pure Americana landscapes and takes in some of the country's biggest, oldest and most peculiar sites along the way. Begin the journey by following the traditional East-West direction of Route 66 from Chicago to St. Louis, Missouri, traveling through cornfields and flat prairies. When we arrive in St. Louis, one of the largest cities along Route 66, you can follow in the footsteps of legendary explorers, including Lewis and Clark, at the Gateway Arch, the gate to the West and the nation's tallest monument within a National Park.

St. Louis - Springfield

Day 4: Continue through the Ozark Highlands of Southern Missouri, recognized as the birthplace of Route 66. En route, stop at the Meramec Caverns, a natural limestone cave whose formations and colors are as unique as they are beautiful. Adding to the pleasure of exploring the caves is learning that Jesse James used them as a hideout and took advantage of the underground river to escape through the "Back Door."

Springfield - Tulsa - Oklahoma City

Day 5: This morning, cut through the south-eastern corner of Kansas on your way to Oklahoma City. The Oklahoma section of Route 66 contains more drivable miles than any other state. Portion of this stretch was even used by many Oklahoman families headed west in search of better opportunities during the 1930s. The famous blue whale statue in Catoosa remains a landmark along Route 66. Once arriving in Tulsa, the Avery Route 66 memorial bridge connects the east with the west. Constructed in 1915 but closed to both vehicles and pedestrians, it gained its place on the list of National Historic Places in 1996. A brief orientation tour will commence upon arrival in Oklahoma City, the state capital of Oklahoma.

Oklahoma City - Amarillo

Day 6: Continue to Amarillo, located in the pancake flat plains of the Texas Panhandle. This area of Texas was once the buffalo-rich grasslands of the Great Plains, inhabited by the Kiowa and Comanche Native Americans. Stop at the Oklahoma Route 66 museum in Clinton, where you can experience 6 decades of Route 66 history. (admission included) Stop in Shamrock, Texas, known for the once beloved Conoco Tower Station and U-drop café, and the 1929 opened and restored Phillips 66 gas station for a photo stop in McLean. Oil companies opened many gas stations as the need for petrol increased, as the number of travelers increased on Route 66.

Amarillo - Albuquerque

Day 7: Before leaving Amarillo, a visit to the world-famous Cadillac Ranch is a must. Here, you experience a unique display of art featuring a row of ten colorful painted Cadillac cars. Buried grill first in the ground since 1974. The Cadillacs range in production years between 1949 and 1963. This art display is now home to over 1 million visitors a year. Continue westbound and arrive in the neighboring state of New Mexico with destination Albuquerque. This city is not only the state's largest but also known as the hub for technology, the arts, and the annual International Balloon Festival.

Albuquerque - Gallup - Holbrook

Day 8: Leave Albuquerque and travel north to another spectacular Route 66 community, Gallup. Having barely changed since Route 66's heydays, this city serves up a slice of Americana rarely seen nowadays, along with one of the best strips of Neon signs you will see anywhere on the old route. Shop one of the unique gift stores of the Southwest. When leaving Gallup, you will enter the Nation's largest Native American Reservation, home to the Navajo Nation. Living on almost 18,000 acres of land, this reservation is found in the states of Arizona, New Mexico, and Utah. This afternoon, you could experience the wonders of Canyon de Chelly, where ancestral pueblos, pictographs of the ancient past will introduce you to Navajo culture. (Optional Excursion)

Holbrook - Monument Valley - Page

Day 9: Leave Holbrook and continue your expedition through the Navajo Nation to Monument Valley. Experience the beauty of this region through a variety of Monuments, Mesas, and Buttes. This backdrop was used for many western movies with actor John Wayne, including movies like Forrest Gump and Back to the Future. Get up close to some of the monuments through the Monument Valley jeep tour (Optional excursion). Overnight in Page, AZ

Day 10: Before leaving Page, a visit to Antelope Canyon (optional Excursion) is scheduled and recommended to participate. Antelope Canyon is the American Southwest's most visited canyon, created through the force of water and wind erosion, leaving slot canyons and narrow pathways. This experience is not to be missed. Return to the Navajo Reservations and travel to the magnificent Grand Canyon. This region was proclaimed as a National Park in 1919 and continues to receive close to 5 million visitors annually. In the late afternoon, you will arrive at the historic Route 66 community of Williams. You will take an unforgettable train ride (included) through the magnificent Grand Canyon National Park.

Williams - Seligman - Kingman - Las Vegas

Day 11: Depart Williams and continue via route 40 to route 66 and visit Seligman, Arizona. It was this community that lobbied to have the name changed from Route 66 to Historic Route 66 back in 1987. Many residents who had called Seligman home still live there today and always welcome visitors all year round. Continue via Kingman to the glitz and glamour of the City of Las Vegas, where mega resort hotels dot the Las Vegas Strip. Once arrived, a stop will be made at Calico Ghost Town (admission included). Once a bustling community of the 19th century during the local silver ore rush, it fell into despair during the 1930s but was then purchased by the amusement park Knotts Berry Farm, reconstructed as it was during its peak years and then donated as a gift to San Bernardino County as an attraction. Relive the days of the Old West. In the afternoon, we arrive in Los Angeles, a metropolis of more than 18 million residents.

Los Angeles

Day 14: Enjoy a full day city tour of this mega city and visit some of the neighborhoods the city is so famous for, including downtown Los Angeles, Hollywood and the walk of fame, Farmers Market and the Grove, passing Beverly Hills on our way to the final stop of route 66, Santa Monica. UTAH'S DREAM ROAD TRIP

Utah is the road trip you've been dreaming about. With amazing diverse landscapes and 28 scenic byways, there's never a dull moment. Utah is well known for its Mighty 5® National Parks: Zion, Arches, Canyonlands, Capitol Reef and Bryce Canyon. The beauty of Utah includes all that lies between these epic parks.

The state has a variety of themes that inspire the great American Road Trip. From a classic western with cowboys and vast desert landscapes to a Thelma & Louise epic. Many iconic scenes from Thelma & Louise were filmed in Utah, and you can visit these locations, such as Arches National Park and Dead Horse Point State Park. Take your time and drive the 22.5-mile scenic byway called Dead Horse Mesa Scenic Byway, where you will have views of the La Sal Mountains to the east, the Abajo Mountains to the south, the Henry Mountains to the west and the Bookcliffs to the north as you wind your way through breathtaking scenery.

Utah's All-American Road, Scenic Byway 12, has been designated thus because of the unique features you can't find elsewhere, making it a tourist destination. This road connects Panguitch and Bryce Canyon in the west with Torrey and Capitol Reef in the northeast. Although this isn't the quickest route, it is by far the most beautiful. The whole drive can be completed in 3 hours, but that is without a stop to photograph, marvel and explore. As you proceed east from Panguitch, you'll enjoy driving through the two red arches in Red Canyon. Then, you'll be in awe as you witness the actual "stairs" in the Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument just past Henrieville — a different sandstone color to the north and the south. Along the "Hogsback" between Escalante and Boulder, hairpin turns dare you on a road that drastically drops off from the shoulders into deep canyons below.

Take this opportunity to stop in Escalante and Boulder to eat at Hell's Backbone Grill, where the food couldn't get fresher as they grow their vegetables, fruits, herbs, flowers, and greens, as well as Boulder-raised, grass-fed local lamb and beef. Break up your drive and hike the famed Calf Creek Falls to see a desert waterfall.

While looking for great small town stops, we recommend the town of Helper in central Utah. Looking at a map, the topography of the cliffs seems to swallow the town up in the river valley between the Western Tavaputs and Wasatch plateaus. Settled in 1881, Helper was named after the team of "helper" coal-powered steam engines that assisted freight trains up the neighboring canyon and over Soldier's Summit; the city was created because of and for the coal industry. Now a community of art, culture, history, and stories of the power of togetherness, Helper has evolved into a destination of incredible artistry, opportunity and discovery. Enjoy a great coffee at Happiness Within or a warm meal at Balanced Rock Eatery and Pub.

Salt Lake's accessibility isn't just a talking point, it's a promise. With daily non-stop flights to nearly 100 cities and a major Delta hub at Salt Lake City International Airport (SLC), getting here has never been easier. And once you arrive, everything is within reach. With more than 10,000 hotel rooms countywide — including the newly opened Asher Adams, a boutique hotel housed in the beautifully restored Union Pacific Depot—Salt Lake offers accommodations for every type of traveler, from luxury seekers to budget-conscious adventurers.

This is a city that transforms with the seasons. In winter, it becomes a powder lover's paradise, with world-class skiing and snowboarding just minutes from downtown. that light up the streets. Come fall, the surrounding canyons ignite with color, drawing leaf-peepers and hikers alike. For a truly unique experience, float in the buoyant turquoise waters of the Great Salt Lake—North America's largest saltwater lake—where white-sand beaches, unforgettable sunsets and dark sky viewing await.

But the mountains are only half the story. Salt Lake's urban core pulses with cultural energy and a culinary scene as diverse as the city itself. From inventive tasting menus to food truck favorites, the growing number of award-winning restaurants, craft breweries, and locally owned cafés offer a flavor for every palate. The city's distinct neighborhoods—from the historic charm of The Avenues to the artistic vibes of 9th & 9th—offer global cuisine, chic boutiques, cozy bookshops, and buzzing nightlife.

Culture seekers will find plenty to love, too. Salt Lake is home to world-class theaters, galleries, and museums—ranging from thought-provoking contemporary art spaces to interactive, family-friendly institutions like the Natural History Museum of Utah and Clark Planetarium. History buffs can stroll through Temple Square, explore the story of the Mormon pioneers, or visit the Utah State Capitol, a stunning neoclassical building with panoramic views of the valley.

Sports fans can catch high-energy action year-round. Cheer on the NBA's Utah Jazz or experience the excitement of the city's newest addition, the Utah Hockey Club, now bringing NHL action to downtown. And with the 2034 Winter Olympics on the horizon, Salt Lake is set to take the global stage once again, celebrating its rich Olympic legacy with modern flair.

Salt Lake also serves as the ideal basecamp for an epic American West road trip. Just a day's drive puts you in the heart of some of the most iconic national parks in the U.S. Head south to explore the red rock and sandstone splendor of Zion, Bryce Canyon, and Arches. Or venture north to experience the geothermal wonders of Yellowstone and the jagged beauty of the Grand Tetons. TRAILBLAZERS IN HOSPITALITY

From Waypoint to Wow-Point: St. George's Story Of Hospitality Innovation

When St. George, Utah, was settled in 1861, it was a desolate desert. Early settlers were sent to the area to grow cotton. They built the St. George Temple, the first temple completed by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in Utah. Finished in 1877 and fully renovated in 2023, it still stands today. Nearly a century later, St. George became a sought-after tourist destination.

Hospitality was always a part of St. George's identity. As the city grew, new opportunities emerged. In 1918, the first paved highways were built, later becoming U.S. Highway 91. The next year, Zion National Park was founded, and Bryce Canyon National Park followed in 1928. These parks, along with early tourism promotions, brought the first wave of visitors.

The rise of the automobile industry and the appeal of National Parks brought more travelers. Seeing this opportunity, Lester Wittwer, a local farmer who transported produce to Nevada and California, ventured into the hospitality business.

In 1955, after briefly running a motel in Las Vegas, Lester returned home to Santa Clara and opened the Wittwer Motor Lodge on St. George Blvd. An early innovator, he brought the first refrigerated air conditioning to a Utah hotel and built the state's second hotel swimming pool.

That original property still welcomes guests today as Aiden by Best Western

St. George, the rebranded version of the Wittwer Motor Lodge—and is the hotel featured in the photo above.

By the 1950s and '60s, roadside motels lined St. George Blvd. As more tourists discovered the area, some chose to make St. George home. A pivotal moment in the city's tourism came in 1965 when Dixie Red Hills Golf Course opened. Many credit this addition for turning St. George from a stopover into a true destination.

Lester and Vanola Wittwer raised six children, teaching them the values of hospitality and hard work. Their four sons Royden, Tony, Mel, and Sheldon helped on the farm and at the motel. As they grew, they expanded the family business. In 1968, they opened their second motel, Best Western Coral Hills, just two blocks from the original lodge and close to the new golf course.

The 1960s were pivotal for St. George's tourism industry. Snow Canyon State Park was created in 1962. In 1967, Utah's Division of Travel Development was established to promote recreation, scenery, and attractions, making St. George a prime focus. More state parks followed: Gunlock (1970), Quail Creek (1986), and Sand Hollow (2003).

Tourism surged in the 1990s. In 1995, Tuacahn Amphitheater opened, offering breathtaking performances against a red rock backdrop. A year later, the Wittwer family opened Best Western Plus Abbey Inn, the first hotel in town with a full complimentary hot breakfast, an amenity still popular today. More golf courses, trails, and restaurants followed, cementing St. George as a premier destination.

Over the following decades, Wittwer Hospitality grew, adding multiple properties and solidifying its reputation. Today, it is one of southern Utah's most trusted names in lodging, known for innovation and Heartfelt Hospitality™. As of 2025, St. George remains one of the fastest-growing metro areas in the U.S., with tourism at the heart of its thriving economy.

The future is bright for this desert town. With several new hotels in development and a proud legacy of hospitality, Wittwer Hospitality and the city it helped shape continue to lead the way.

MISSOURI: ICONIC SITES & LOCAL BITES

Kansas City - Arrival

Day 1: Have a late lunch at Arthur Bryant's Barbeque, the legendary "King of Ribs." The most renowned pit master in history, Bryant created a sauce that has attracted former Presidents Harry Truman and Jimmy Carter to his restaurant. Visit the sights and sounds of a uniquely American art form at the American Jazz Museum. The museum's exhibits feature talented performers who helped the genre thrive. Located in the same complex, the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum (NLBM) can't be missed. It is the world's only museum dedicated to preserving and celebrating the rich history of African American baseball and its impact on the social advancement of America. The 10,000-square-foot multimedia exhibit chronicles the history and heroes of the leagues from their founding in 1920 to their demise in the 1960s. The NLBM was recently added to the U.S. Civil Rights Trail. Some believe the integration of baseball was a catalyst for the Civil Rights Movement, proving that an individual's worth should not be determined by the color of their skin. Have dinner at Fiorella's Jack Stack Barbecue. A Kansas City tradition since 1957, Jack Stack has one of the most extensive BBQ menus in the country. After dinner, enjoy live jazz music at The Blue Room. Named after the famous 1930s Street Hotel club in the historic 18th & Vine Jazz District, the venue provides a distinctive platform to present dynamic performances from the best local and national jazz talent in an intimate setting. In addition to The Blue Room experience, sit in on a "jam session" at The Mutual Musicians Foundation—located in the heart of Kansas City's historic jazz district. Originally home to the Black Musicians' Protective Union Local 627 A.F. of M., the Foundation continues its grand tradition as a living tribute to the city's long and illustrious musical history. Jazz greats and popular local players alike continue to show up every weekend to play the night away just as they have since the 1930s.

Kansas City

Day 2: Enjoy breakfast at one of the local coffee shops or restaurants. A few suggestions are the Blue Bird Bistro, Succotash, Messenger. Next, make your way to Union Station Kansas City to enjoy the ever-changing exhibits, Science City, planetarium, shops, and grab a bite for lunch at either Harvey's Restaurant or Pierpont's. After lunch, learn a little bit about Kansas City's gangster history and how the city got its nickname: "Paris of the Plains." Gangster Tour highlights infamous crimes like the Union Station Massacre, shows the locations of speakeasies and gambling halls and explains how liquor flowed freely during Prohibition. The homes and workplaces of crime bosses and the sites of major turf wars are also featured on the tour.

Sounds like an "offer you can't refuse."

After the gangster tour, head to J. Rieger & Co. to learn about the distillery's history, sample Kansas City Whiskey and hop on the only known distillery slide in the world! For dinner, you can choose from many award-winning restaurants in the city's eclectic food scene. Some of the favorites are Corvino Supper Club and Tasting Room, The Town Company, or The Savoy at 21c. Close out the evening with more jazz. Visit Green Lady Lounge, an exclusive jazz lounge featuring Kansas City musicians. Other attractions you might like to explore include The National Museum of Toys and Miniatures, National World War I Museum and Memorial or The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art.

Enjoy lunch at the Mill & Canyon Grill Restaurant surrounded by floor-to-ceiling glass windows that overlook Little Indian Creek and the 120-foot-tall waterfall. Try one of the many house specialties, such as a bison burger and smoked trout cake BLT. After lunch, choose from a variety of activities. Visit Smith Creek Distillery for a moonshine tasting. Soar over Lake Taneycomo on Parakeet Pete's Waterfront Zipline. Marvel at artifacts recovered from under the sea at the Shipwrecked Treasure Museum. Take a One-Hour Sightseeing Cruise or one of the many specialty cruises and relax to the sound of paddle wheels churning the waters of the mighty Mississippi River while taking in the best view of the city skyline. For dinner, head over to BB's Jazz, Blues and Soups before picking up a sweet treat at Ted Drewes Frozen Custard. Since 1929, Route 66 travelers have been delighted by this popular custard stand located on Chippewa Street. Get a "concrete" and turn it upside down. This thick milkshake, made from vanilla frozen custard and blended with traditional and inventive treats, will not spill out of the cup.

St. Louis

WONDERS OF ATLANTIC CANADA - NEW BRUNSWICK

Saint John - Arrival

Day 1: Canada's oldest incorporated city (1785) and the only city on the Bay of Fundy, Saint John has a Loyalist heritage that goes back centuries. Today, Saint John is a popular port-of-call on many of the Canada-New England cruise itineraries. With the Bay of Fundy at its doorstep, Saint John is a vibrant port city full of urban adventure on the edge of nature. The Reversing Falls is where water runs backwards twice a day, and no one blinks an eye. Where the most powerful tug-of-war on earth takes place in the heart of the city thanks to a geological hip-check of South America and Africa, and is now recognized as Stonehammer UNESCO Global Geopark.

Saint John - St. Andrews

Day 2: Visit Saint John City Market, in operation since 1876 and built by shipbuilders. Its unique design - an upside-down ship's hull, has no center pillars or posts to hold up the roof. Nowhere else in Saint John can you experience a traditional "farmers market" while shopping for such a wide selection of goods and services, ranging from dulce to hand-made local crafts, and enjoy a delicious meal from one of the numerous restaurants, featuring local and international foods. Visit the Area 506 Waterfront Container Village or take part in a historic walking tour of Uptown Saint John. Visit the Town of St. Andrews National Historic District. St. Andrews is a premier heritage seaside resort and is one of a select few National Historic Districts in Canada. Founded in 1783 by United Empire Loyalists from the U.S. state of Maine, St. Andrews is home to more than 140 heritage buildings, including five National Historic Sites: St. Andrews Blockhouse (1812), Minister's Island (1786), Greenock Church (1824), Charlotte County Courthouse (1840), Charlotte County Gaol (1832), and just a few kilometres up the St. Croix River you'll find the international historic site of Saint Croix Island, which history dates back to 1604. St. Andrews is exceptional among Canadian towns in having an unusually large number of heritage buildings, some dating back as far as 230 years. Old-world charm in the 21st century awaits family, friends and visitors year-round in St. Andrews.

St. Andrews

Day 3: Experience a whale watching tour with Quoddy Link Marine. Awe-inspiring wildlife experiences in New Brunswick introduce visitors to whales, shorebirds, inland birds and other amazing species of wild animals.

St. Andrews - Fredericton

Day 4: The city of Fredericton, New Brunswick's Riverside Capital. Relax with locals over a craft beer on a lively patio; dive into the rich history on display throughout the city; catch a show at the theatre; explore gorgeous parks by land or water. In Fredericton, the urban comes with a delightful side of nature. Built along both sides of the meandering Saint John River, Fredericton has a special connection to the water. 'The Green' is a long park hugging the banks of the river, and locals value it for the breath of fresh air it provides in the heart of the city. Kayaking, rowing, canoeing, and stand-up paddleboarding are common pastimes. Plus, beaches, golf courses, gardens and trails combine to make Fredericton a very active, outdoor city. History lives loud here. Museums, heritage sites, large old Victorian homes, the historic Garrison District, and the legislative assembly create a connection to bygone days that flavours any explorer's experience. Enjoy it as you discover new restaurants, city markets, and of course, a few of the city's microbreweries - the highest concentration of craft breweries and tasting experiences in the Maritimes. Culture is vibrant here, with galleries, festivals and artists' studios elevating your experience even more. Our province's capital city might just become your main event.

Fredericton - Moncton

Day 5: City of Moncton, Canada's first officially bilingual (but not the only bilingual city) voted "most polite city in Canada" is located at the geographic centre of the Canadian Maritimes. Location is everything in Moncton, with easy access to two contrasting New Brunswick coastlines - the Fundy Coastal Drive and the Acadian Coastal Drive. Stroll down Main Street, witness the tidal bore roll in from the Bay of Fundy, or discover the cool urban art that's springing up everywhere. There's a lot going on here!

Moncton - Bay Of Fundy Coast - Moncton

Day 6: New Brunswick's most famous geological feature is the Hopewell Rocks, home to the world's highest tides that rise and fall up to an incredible 48ft. (14 m)! Older than the Appalachian Mountains and once larger than the Canadian Rocky Mountains, the red cliffs of Hopewell Rocks have been chiseled, over millions of years, by the pounding force of the Fundy tides. It's a place to pause; a place to appreciate a remarkable story interwoven through time, tide, and the intricacies of nature. These are the highest tides in the world after all, and it happens twice a day, every day of the year! At low tide, the sea retreats so far visitors can walk for miles to explore a maze of sky-high rocks that look like sculpted flowerpots. FYI: Each summer, for a 4-6-week period beginning in mid-July, 1 to 2.5 million shorebirds congregate in waves at several key locations in the upper reaches of the bay. The Bay of Fundy is their only stopover on a 2,485 mi (4,000 km) migration south and one of the best locations to see these shorebirds just happens to be at Hopewell Rocks.

Moncton - Departure

Day 7: Do you trust your own perception? Magnetic Hill, where cars simply don't roll uphill. It's impossible, right? Well, drive to the bottom of this world-famous hill, shift into neutral, and be prepared to be amazed. Your car will roll uphill in total defiance of natural law, even as your brain is telling you it's simply not possible. Is it a magnetic pull, an illusion, or a gravitational mystery? Stories about Magnetic Hill have been around since the early 1800s, and this wondrous place has been puzzling visitors for decades.
